- A personal relationship with Jesus Christ and evidence of a disciple-making lifestyle
- Demonstrates a mature walk with God as verified by lifestyle and references
- Demonstrates a foundational understanding of the Bible with its overarching narrative and can articulate the major tenets of the Christian faith to others
- Evidences God's gifting and leading to reach unreached people groups with the gospel
- Is legally able to work in the USA and/or is on a legal travel visa
- Models healthy family relationships and standards (see our statement of faith)
- Shows evidence of good emotional, physical, financial and mental health
- Demonstrates a healthy relationship with a local evangelical church
- Demonstrates relational skills to network with partners for raising salary and ministry
- Has not been convicted of felonious sexual or violent crimes
- A teachable spirit and willingness to serve in team settings
- Commitment to the full duration of the residency
- Completion of a brief application, interview, and character references
- Our admission directors reserve discretion over the final decision of each applicant

Duration

- 6-18 months

Targeted Outcomes

- Upon completion, residents will:
  - Possess a clear missiological vision for gospel movements
  - Demonstrate proficiency in movement tools for evangelism, discipleship, church formation, and leadership multiplication
  - Have practical experience engaging unreached people groups or lost segments
  - Be equipped to train and coach others, both locally and globally
  - Be prepared for next steps in long-term missions or local movement leadership
- Abiding
  - Equip the resident in the full of armor of God, with spiritual weapons that are powerful for the destruction of strongholds and the pulling down of speculations

  - Equip the resident to walk in a demonstration of the Spirit and not just eloquent and fancy speech
  - Equip the resident to know Christ in the fellowship of His sufferings and the power of His resurrection
  - Equip the resident to be known, not for his education or training, but for "having been with Jesus"
- End Visioning
  - Equip the resident in the "Mission of God" and the "Father's Heart"
  - Equip the resident in assessing and prioritizing lostness in gap peoples and places
  - Equip the resident in a "No Place Left" framework
- Kingdom-Building Confidences and Competencies/Practices and Principles
  - Equip the resident to become competent minister of Christ that builds as a wise master builder
  - Equip the resident in the scaffolding of kingdom building, disciple-making, and church-planting
  - Equip the resident in entry strategy, gospel strategy, discipleship strategy, church formation strategy, and leadership multiplication strategy
  - Equip the resident in the outsider/insider paradigm and indigenization of churches
  - Equip the resident in the stewardship and transference of the "core missionary task"
  - Equip the resident to steward a church planting strategy to gap peoples and places
  - Equip the resident to live and sustain a family and team on mission
  - Equip the resident with problem-solving skills
  - Equip the resident in the value and practice of kingdom teaming and networking
  - Equip the resident in the value and practice of tracking

What to Expect:

- A practical immersion in an established missions "training hub" that equips and prepares the resident in movement vision, strategy, and ethos
- A practically-based experience more than a knowledge-based experience that focuses on the acquisition of the spiritual and missiological skills necessary to conceive, initiate, and fully execute a bona fide church planting movement strategy in a high priority target place or people
- Lots of practical repetitions in the training environment and in the mission field that is the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. DFW is one of the most ethnically diverse regions in the United States, with around eight million people, four-hundred languages, and one of the highest concentration of diaspora populations in the USA
- To maintain regular abiding, harvest, discipleship, church, and leader development rhythms with a team of practitioners at varying levels of maturity
- To travel domestically and internationally for trainings, mission trips, summits, and various other types of events
- To be developed with a view of deployment to the gaps

HALL OF TYRANNUS PROGRAM DETAILS

Expected Time Commitment

- Residents will experience a balance of training, ministry, community, and rest, modeled after Jesus and the Apostles rhythms of engagement and retreat
- Required attendance at prescribed harvest rhythms, discipleship rhythms, training rhythms, church rhythms, and leadership meeting rhythms
- Required attendance at prescribed swarm trainings and domestic and international missions trips
- Resident should expect to demonstrate the commitment of a manager in a business or restaurant. That commitment should be measured more by an execution of responsibilities and duties than by time
- It is assumed that each resident has already exemplified the virtue and character of being a responsible and dedicated steward of God's time and resources and mission

Transportation

- Residents are advised to have or maintain some form of transportation. Automobiles, motorcycles, or scooters are recommended, but bicycles would meet basic needs. Public transportation is also available, but it not as extensive as other urban areas
- E3 will not be providing transportation to the residents
